

Description

Produced on a small family estate, this olive oil will be a special treat for those fond of Kalamata olives. These organically grown olives are so highly valued for eating, only a small amount is reserved for EVOO production. This producer has won many awards, primarily because they hand harvest early and place quality above all else.

Uses & Highlights

- This green-golden colored EVOO has a floral aroma, a creamy and buttery texture, and a light olive fruit flavor.
- It will be a star in any salad recipe, paired with all types of Vinegars.

- It is a legendary ingredient in Chicken and Lamb dishes that can also feature Lemon and Oregano.
- As with some of our Extra Virgin Olive Oils, this Kalamata is unfiltered and sediment of olive pulp and particles is natural – shake if desired.
